Mr. Simpson further stated that he is looking forward to having the camera back here recording the Council meetings in the near future.

Council Reports and Comments:

Councilmember Edwards thanked the Florence City School Board for the lunch meeting today and also for giving the Council an update on the Florence School System. Councilmember Edwards stated that we are very fortunate to have such a great school system in our City.

Councilmember Betterton also expressed his appreciation for the Florence City School Board and for Dr. Shaw and Dr. Shepard. Councilmember Betterton stated that he recently attended a play at Florence High School and that it was great.

Councilmember Simmons also expressed her appreciation for the Florence City School Board. Councilmember Simmons expressed her appreciation to Gary Williamson, Building Official, and the Building Department for keeping homeowners accountable regarding the upkeep of their properties. Councilmember Simmons noted that the remodeling of the restrooms at Lewis Field is completed.

Councilmember Bradley thanked everyone who came tonight and Reverend Simpson for his comments. Councilmember Bradley expressed his appreciation to Gary Williamson, Building Official, and Melissa Bailey, Planning & Community Development Director, for their work regarding the demolition of houses that have become nuisances in our neighborhoods.

Councilmember Eubanks reminded everyone of the “Bicentennial” celebrations and activities that are planned for each month until the end of the year. Councilmember Eubanks noted that on April 27 there will be a “Bicentennial” tree dedication at Deibert Park. Councilmember Eubanks further noted that historical portraits of our founding fathers and other notable citizens of Florence are on display at the Kennedy-Douglas Art Center.

President Jordan also thanked the Florence City School Board for the lunch meeting today. President Jordan congratulated Mayor Holt on the appointments that he presented tonight. President Jordan noted that the Council did a lot of work tonight.

Gary Williamson, Building Official, presented the closing prayer.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.
